Mr. Farmer

Do you know that woven wire fencing is back near the pre-war prices? Probably not, but true.

We have the well-known "Pittsburg Perfect" and American style (wrapped), field, hog, and poultry wire. Barbed wire too. And farmers are buying it just about every day. Special poultry fence costs you 3-4c square foot, less than half the price of hen wire and worth very much more, as a matter of fact.

Let us tell you all about it when you come in.

Health Information

Cancer is one of the major causes of death. Statistics indicate that cancer is of greater frequency at ages over 40 than tuberculosis, pneumonia, or typhoid fever, and that an average of one woman in eight and one man in fourteen over 40 years of age dies of cancer, and the disease has shown an increase of late years.

Cancer is no respecter of persons, attacking rich and poor impartially.

At the beginning the disease starts as a local malady and is easily cured if recognized as such and given proper treatment in time. Speed means life in the cure of cancer, for if left alone all cases will end in death.

Danger signs are usually located in some unhealthy spot or at site of some irritation on the skin, such as a wart, mole, lump, or a stab. If the cancer begins within the body constant indigestion and loss of weight may be regarded as a danger sign. At first no pain whatever accompanies the disease.

If any lump or mark on the body becomes sore or changes in appearance, especially all lumps on the breast, go to a doctor for an examination. It is too late for certainly to cure to wait until you are sure it is cancer.

The only cure for the malady is to remove every trace of the disease, and medicines which relieve pain do not have any appreciable effect on the disease itself, simply delaying the treatment.

A surgical operation is the only sure way to cure cancer, and best chances for recovery lie in an early operation. The danger of certain death increases with each 24 hours of delay.

Nix on the "Parley-Voo" stuff!

A FRIEND of mine.
WHO COULDN'T speak.
A WORD of French.
WENT TO Paris.
AND THE first time,
HE HAD to get.
A HAIRCUT and shave.
HE PRACTICED an hour.
MAKING SIGNS.
IN THE looking glass.
SO THE French barber,
WOULD UNDERSTAND him.
AND THEN he went in.
AND WIGGLED his fingers.
THROUGH HIS hair.
AND STROKED his chin.
AND THE barber grinned.
AND FINISHED the job.
THEN MY friend thought,
HE'D BE polite.
SO HE gave the barber.
AN AMERICAN cigarette.
WHICH THE barber smoked.
AND MY friend pointed.
TO HIS mouth.
AND SAID "Liked voo."
AND THE barber roared.
AND SAID "You BET."
I USED to smoke 'em.
WHEN I worked.
IN INDIANAPOLIS.
AND BELIEVE me.
THEY SATISFY!"

HERE'S a smoke that talks in any language and needs no interpreter. Light up a Chesterfield, draw deep—and more plainly than words your smile will tell the world "They Satisfy." It's the blend that does it—and you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere except in Chesterfields, for that blend can't be copied!
